Ph.D. Anton Gajdoš born on 1.6.1940 in Dubriniči (today Ukraine) lives most of his life in Bratislava (ex TCH, nowadays SVK). He comes from gymnastics family (his brother Pavel have world championship medals) and he devoted his life to gymnastics. His last achievement is establishment of Narodna encyklopedia športu Slovenska (www.sportency.sk). Among his passion is collecting photos and signatures of gymnasts. As we tend to forget old champions and important gymnasts, judges and coaches, we decided to publish part of his archive under title Short historical notes. All information on these pages is from Anton’s archives and collected through years.

ALFRED SCHWARZMANN (23 March 1912 Fürth, Germany – 11. March 2000 Goslar, Germany)

Alfred Schwarzmann was a solder and his first major competition was OG in Berlin where he won 3 gold medals. In 1938 he left military service and began working as a physical education teacher. At the beginning of World War II he was part of the German army and participated as a parachutist in the battles in Poland, France, Italy and Soviet Union. In 1944 he was hospitalized and later came into British custody. After the war, he was still able to prepare for OG in Helsinki and placed 2nd on high bar at the age of 40. Both OG in Berlin and Helsinki were his only two important international appearances.
